This nearly new detached villa in La Herrada, Los Montesinos, was completed in 2025 and offers modern living in a sought-after location. From the moment you arrive, the property impresses with its clean lines, private swimming pool and off-road parking. Step inside and you will find a bright and spacious open plan lounge, kitchen and dining area. This layout creates a welcoming space that is perfect for everyday living and entertaining. In addition, the ground floor features a convenient cloakroom with toilet and basin. The master bedroom is also located on the ground floor. It offers walk-through wardrobes and a stylish en suite shower room. As a result, this lovely modern villa is a true gem.
